ARTS EDUCATION OPPORTUNITIES

COUNTY OF SANTA BARBARA- ARTS MAKING IMPACT GRANTS
http://www.sbac.ca.gov/county-grants/

The Arts Making Impact (AMI) grant program is a partnership between the County Arts Commission and Santa Barbara Bowl Foundation. The goals of this grant program are to:

1. Leverage community resources - AMI projects may support new or innovative projects and joint/collaborative efforts that leverage community resources, additional funding, and community support.
2. Increase community engagement - AMI projects may be used to increase community engagement and provide greater and more diverse participation in the arts, and integrate the arts into learning environments for children and young adults.
3. Eliminate barriers to cultural activities - Grant proposals that build beneficial partnerships and collaborations to help eliminate current barriers to cultural activities—such as access to transportation, materials, artists, music, and art instruction to rural youth and under-served communities are encouraged.

A total of $50,000 is available each cycle. Grant Requests Range: $500 to $5,000.
Deadline for submission October 1.

Contact Information
The Santa Barbara County Alliance for Arts Education (SBCAAE) is partnering with the Lynda Fairly Carpinteria Arts Center to display artwork created in our local elementary and junior high schools. This is the second annual exhibition pulled together to highlight and display the amazing creativity and talent that in our schools, our students, and our teachers. The exhibition will be held in April of 2019 with an opening reception (date TBD).

The theme of this year’s exhibition is “The HEART of Education.” Students and teachers can work together and are encouraged to submit entries that interpret the theme “The HEART of Education” and focus on arts as an essential part of the classroom. Teachers are encouraged to submit multiple artworks that may demonstrate using the arts to teach another subject or a dedicated art lesson taught as part of the school day.

Arrangements will be made to pick up art work at the school’s office by a SBCAAE committee member by contacting Hannah Rubalcava at hannah@sbac.ca.gov to make schedule a pick-up date no later than February 28, 2019. SB County Public schools may also send artwork through the inter-district mail system. Please address to SBCEO Main Office Attn: Steve Keithly.

All artwork must be 2-dimensional visual artwork that can be displayed in the Lynda Fairly Carpinteria Art Center’s Gallery. Please use the following guidelines to submit your works of art.
