CAST TRAINING
CALIFORNIA SCIENCE TEST WORKSHOP

This workshop is designed for individuals or teams of educators who play a role in supporting high quality science education in the classroom.

TRAINING HIGHLIGHTS:

- Learn about the CAST assessment design and expectations.
- Explore the CAST training test items.
- Deconstruct California Next Generation Science Standards (CA NGSS) Performance Expectations.
- Consider the implications of the CA NGSS and CAST for improved teaching and learning.
- Analyze your School or District’s CAST results from 2019.

TARGET AUDIENCE:
Science Teachers and Leaders, Science TOSAs, Administrators; Elementary, Middle, High School

Cost
$175 (includes breakfast, lunch, and materials)

DATES/ LOCATION:
SOUTH COUNTY
SBCEO MTC
(Multimedia Training Center)
February 4, 2020

NORTH COUNTY
SBCEO Boardroom
402 Farnel Rd, Santa Maria
February 25, 2020

TIME:
8:30 AM to 3 PM

For more information contact:
Scott Spector
Coordinator of Innovation and Academic Events
sspector@sbceo.org 805-964-4711 x 5348

Bridget Braney: co-presenter
Director of School and District Support
bbraney@sbceo.org 805-964-4711 x 5065

Register online at:
http://sbceo.k12oms.org