

Santa Barbara County Education Office and the California Reading and Literature Project present

ADEPT

A Developmental English Proficiency Test

Outcomes:

- Learn to administer the ADEPT subtests through simulation training sessions
- Analyze student results to inform language instruction

Target Audience:

Teachers of English Learners in K-8

Date and Time:

Tues, Sept. 29, 2016
8:30 a.m - 11:30 a.m.

Location:

Souza Center, Santa Maria

Cost:

$145 per person

Facilitator:

Carla Benchoff

Coordinator, Instructional Support, SBCEO

For more information, please contact:

Carla Benchoff

Coordinator, Instructional Support, SBCEO
cbenchoff@sbceo.org • (805) 964-4710 x5373

- ADEPT is a formative oral language assessment that provides teachers with immediate results to inform ELD grouping and instructional decisions for English Learners.
- ADEPT is a valid and reliable instrument (aligned with the CELDT) for use with students in K-8.
- ADEPT assesses a student's oral language abilities using a scope and sequence of language or structures across the five levels of English proficiency.

<http://sbceo.k12oms.org>