TEACHING ABOUT THE HOLOCAUST

Financial support for workshop received from

Echoes and Reflections is a comprehensive Holocaust education program that delivers professional development and a rich array of resources for middle and high school teachers. It prepares educators to teach about the Holocaust in a way that stimulates engagement and critical thinking while providing opportunities for students to see the relevance of this complex history to their own lives.

In this workshop, participants will:

- Obtain classroom resources and strategies to develop interdisciplinary lessons that help students understand what happened during the Holocaust.
- Receive a free, electronic comprehensive Teachers' Guide with standards-aligned materials.
